The number of meals a dog eats per day depends completely on the family schedule. Dogs should eat at least two meals each day, about 12 hours apart. But a breakfast, lunch, and dinner schedule is an equally great option. If more than 12 hours elapses between meals, the stomach can become hyperacidic causing nausea.

Let me begin by saying what this book isn't. It isn't an easy beach read and it isn't about dogs. The evocative title The Hour Between Dog and Wolf refers to the medieval belief that a tame dog could change into a wild wolf during the hour of dusk. According to Dr. John Coates, it's a metaphor that reflects what happens within our bodies as we take economic risks.
